In Memoriam

Death is just a natural thing
Like the closing of a door,
As we start upon a journey
To a new and distant shore —
So let your grief be softened
And yield not to despair
You have only placed your loved one
In the loving Father's care.

"Seniors"

Twelve years of hope.
Twelve years of fears.
Twelve years of friendship,
All ending in tears.

We've loved and we've cried
And we've laughed in these halls.
We've beat up our lockers,
And written on these walls.

Teachers we've dreaded . . .
And Teachers we'll miss . . .
All ending now with
A hug and a kiss . . .

The friends that we've made
And kept through the years,
Who've shared all the laughter
And helped cry the tears . . .

We're seniors at last juniors no more . . .
We've opened and closed
An important door.

A door to our futures
That we all must pass through.
As we walk down the aisle
We wonder what to

A "Goodbye" and "So long"
And "I'll keep in touch"
All rather pointless
But each mean so much.

It's all ending now
As we go our own ways
And we'll remember forever
OUR "HIGH SCHOOL DAYS" . . .
Sherry Wallace
Seniors 1984

CLASS OF '84

Having fun was the golden rule,
Here at Oceana High School.
No one will forget us as we walk out the door,
The awesome class of '84.

Sometimes were somewhat serious,
Others were just downright delirious.
Out of all the teachers we have had,
Some of them were not all that bad.

No one will forget and you know this is true,
Going for lunch at the Kathy Lou,
Sitting on the steps at the end of the hall,
Laughing and joking and just having a ball.

Everyone says that they can't wait,
For the day to come when we graduate,
But deep in our heart we know that's not true,
Some might be happy but most will be blue.

Some might go to school for four more years,
The others have education coming out their ears.
Some of the clan we see very much,
The ones we don't try to keep in touch.

It might be hard to say goodbye to good friends,
But that doesn't mean it comes to an end.
We will see each other as the years pass by,
And at the reunion, it'll be hard not to cry.

Once in a while, you might want to take a look,
In all your old high school yearbooks.
It will make you remember things, good and bad,
Then you'll see how much fun you've had.

And as we look back on our high school days,
The only thing that we can say
Is, looking back cuts like a knife,
Because this was the biggest part of our life.

Missy Parsons
Senior 1984

SENIORS

Here we are seniors
It's reall time to go.
It's time to say good-bye
To the school days that we know.

Some will marry.
Some will go on to other schools.
Some will serve their country.
Others will stay to break the rules.

It's time to face the world,
Get out from under Mommy's wing.

It's time to grow up
And do your own thing.

Where did all the years go?
They went by so fast.
Now it's time to move on,
And I wish it could last.

It doesn't seem real;
It's been so long.
It's time to change your life;
It's time to be strong.

This is the year
But it's hard to believe.
It seems like only yesterday I started school
Now it's time to leave.

On Graduation Day
We will shed many tears
For all we have left are memories
Of our wonderful high school years.

Angie Stacy
Senior '84

"SUMMER VACATION"

People come and
People go
Old times fade
And new times grow
Growing together
Then growing apart
Far from the memory
But not from the heart
Needing each other
And helping each day
Coming together
Then drifting away
Finding new love
And love that was lost
Making new memories
No matter what cost
Then summer comes and
Our school days fade
And the hopes and promises
On which dreams were made
So people come and
People go
Old times fade
But new times grow . . .

"SENIORHOOD"

The world keeps on turning
And the days keep passing by.
To think of the friends I'm losing
Is enough to make me cry.
My life is here before me now
Choices to make, things to decide.
Sometimes I get this crazy feeling
To just run somewhere and hide . . .
My last year of school is here.
I've reached my "Seniorhood."
No more classrooms to sit in
Once boring, safe, and good.
It's time to try my wings now
To see the world outside.
It's time for me to find out
If luck's really on my side.
It's really hard to imagine
My life in ten more years.
Will I have conquered
All my childhood fears?
Will life treat me kindly
Or will I have to bend?
But anyway I have to go
May I have a happy end.

dad had to say.
he got from his friends.
keep up with the trends."
the engine's loud roar,
to the floor
I like to show.
my dad said to me.

"IF"
Sometimes when the stars are bright
And it's very late at night
I get a feeling deep inside
That someday we might realize
If everyone would care for all
Short or fat or thin or tall
If everyone could just see
The way we live, we are not free
If everything could be alright
I would be sleeping late at night!

Autumn Days

As I looked out my window today,
I saw a view that took my breath away.
The sun was glistening through the trees;
The ground was covered in golden leaves.
A squirrel was scuttering swiftly by,
And then I saw a pretty butterfly.
Oh! What beauty there was to behold,
More precious than a pot of gold.
As I caught a glimpse of the countryside,
An unknown feeling fluttered inside.
I stood there watching the fields of green,
And wished I could paint this beautiful scene.
Whenever my mind gets in a maze,
I'll think back to these glorious autumn days!

TIME

As time ticks slowly by,
The day we've all looked Forward to creeps closer and closer.
We find ourselves trying to Turn back the years,
To have just a little more time
With friends and lovers that
We may never see again,
After this day.
The first day of the rest of Our lives.
Most of us will go our own
Separate ways.
A few will stay behind to carry on.
Whether we decide to go or to stay.
The class of 84 will never again
Be the same.
Like the setting of the sun,
Time will go on and we shall Follow,
For better or for worse.

Decisions
Bado Brown
Senior 1984

I long for the freedom,
to consume and create.
Without being judged,
By onlookers and such.
The challenge of the unknown.
Creates a spark
That illuminates dark
Corners in my mind,
I've yet to discover.
I strive to be different,
In thy every way.
For not to be noticed,
Though I am each day.
I praise those, who can drift
Into place.
With little, or no effort
At all.

Like raindrops trickling from the sky.
Encouraged am I to pursue
This career, that I've Excelled in so rapidly, the Past two years.
Not a fortune will be sought,
I was told, but a nice steady
Job, as teacher, of the arts.
Ask anytime if help you ever
Need; I'll do what I can,
And what I can't will be
Up to you.
For the final decision is
Yours to make.
Appreciated is the guidance
And concern from one who Knows, what lies before me.
Fortune is what I'm after.
But not so much the fame, that fame, that usually accompanies
It.
Decisions, Decisions, I have
To make.
With very little time, left to debate.
I only hope, that when the
Time comes,
I, too, will drift into my own "special" place.
